After the success of the Wuxi JL-6 I spoke about in my last article, we decided to follow it up with a full feature about this really interesting flying wing. The JL-6 is manufactured by the Chinese aircraft manufacturer Chengdu JL-6 Aircraft and Company, also known as SJ-6. As a new aircraft this has not been very well known, however, as it has been in the air testing for only a few months, we were excited to fly it and get some real flight time in. This was really a fantastic feeling, as we had been waiting for this aircraft for a while now. It was definitely worth the wait! JL-6 – Fuselage Detail The JL-6 is a low-wing, two-seat light sport aircraft with tricycle landing gear. The fuselage is formed of four balsa strips and covered with plywood. On the underside is a special two-part landing gear, consisting of a main landing gear, which can be folded, and an auxiliary landing gear, which retracts. Wing Element The aircraft's wing is made of composite material. The leading edge has a honeycomb structure, which greatly increases 82157476af
